IKE VETOES FARM PRICE BILL

FIVE-POINT PROGRAM IS SUGGESTED

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today vetoed the farm price support freeze bill, calling it "ill advised from the standpoint both of the nation and of our farm families."

In a veto message to Congress, the President said:

"With regard to government controls, what the farm economy needs is a thaw rather than a freeze."

Eisenhower's election year action on the measure came despite appeals from a good many Republicans in Congress that he sign the controversial bill.

In announcing his veto, Eisenhower said a five-point program should be undertaken to deal with farm problems. Some sections of that program, embodied in the President's agriculture message to Congress in January, call for legislation.

"Ample authority already exists for others," Eisenhower said.

It takes a two-thirds majority of members voting in both the Senate and the House to override a presidential veto.

The measure passed both the House and Senate by sizable majorities, but the margins were far short of the two-thirds required to override.

Eisenhower said he had given earnest consideration to the arguments for and against the bill, but that it is his judgment that to approve the measure "would be ill advised, from the standpoint of both the nation and our farm families as well."

The bill freezes farm price supports at no less than 1957 levels for one year.

The President said approval of the bill would have such consequences as these:

Many Notables Attend Funeral Of Jim Finnegan

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—James A. (Jim) Finnegan, secretary of the commonwealth and nationally known political figure was buried here today.

The mourners included city, state and national political heads, civic and community leaders and friends and associates of the former Democratic city chairman who died last Thursday at the age of 51.

Among those attending services at the Church of the Most Blessed Sacrament, was Adlai E. Stevenson. Stevenson came to pay his last respects to the man who was his campaign manager in his second losing bid for the presidency.

With Stevenson were Gov. Leader, Mayor David Lawrence of Pittsburgh, Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia, and Matthew H. McCloskey, treasurer of the Democratic party.

The Rev. John J. Murphy, a friend of Finnegan, was celebrant of the requiem mass.

New Chemical Shots Safely Melt Dangerous Blood Clots

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Dangerous blood clots are safely melted away by shots of a new liquid chemical, scientists reported today.

It has done a good job in dissolving clots blocking blood vessels in the legs of 355 patients. Next it will be tested against clots blocking arteries bringing blood to the heart muscle. Such blockage causes coronary attacks.

This chemical is a normal part of human and cow blood, and is known as Plasmin RPII. 10. RPII means Roswell Park Memorial Institute.

It works against clots which are no more than five days old. Dr. Julian Amoroso told science writers on an American Cancer Society visit to major cancer research centers. It's much less

Enrollment Books Close for Pennsylvania Voters Today

Harrisburg (AP)—Voters of Pennsylvania got their last chance today to register for the May 20 primary election.

The voter enrollment books close at the end of the day's business at county election boards across the state but it will be a month or longer before all the figures are checked and tabulated.

Most interest in the figures will center on the question of whether Democrats will continue to narrow the registration lead held by Republicans down through the years.

Until Democratic Gov. Leader took office in 1955, Republicans led Democrats by one million in voter enrollment. That margin was reduced year by year until 1957 when it was cut to 350,000 in a total registration of 5,300,000 voters.

While any voter, including minor parties and non-partisan, may register during the primary enrollment period, only Republicans and Democrats may vote in the May 20 primary.

Minor parties have until April 7 to file their slates of candidates at the State Elections Bureau for the November election. The General Assembly fixed that deadline date for minor parties to prevent candidates defeated at the primary from running again on preempted tickets at the November election.

Candidates for party nomination at the May primary called off campaigning generally this week because of Holy Week. Harold Stassen, seeking the Republican nomination for governor, scheduled an appearance Tuesday before the Harrisburg Alumni Club of the University of Pennsylvania.

Stassen, former president of Pennsylvania, and former disarmament aide to President Eisenhower will discuss "disarmament, its meaning and consequences."

In a talk billed as non-political in Washington, Pa., over the weekend Stassen contended there is less danger now than previously of a nuclear war because Russian Premier Khrushchev is "as much or more aware than any ruler in the Soviet has been of what modern war would mean."

Oscar for Animal Stars Goes to Spike

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It's a dog's world as far as the animal stars of movies and television are concerned.

The annual acting awards bestowed by the American Humane Assn. on Hollywood's animal colony went this year to Spike, star of the film "Old Yeller," and Lassie, who has her own television show.

Only noncanine to break into the top awards was Beauty, a horse who got second place in the movie division for her performance in "Wild Is the Wind."

Second place in the TV division went to Cleo, of "The People's Choice." Rin-Tin-Tin won the third place TV award and Kelly, dog star of "Kelly and Me," finished third in the movie division.

Miss Pickford and her husband came here from Palm Springs to visit their son at the hospital.

Market Overstocked With Russian Aluminum

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Pittsburgh aluminum source says a surplus of Russian aluminum on the European market is responsible for a two-cent-a-pound price cut in primary aluminum in the United States.

Aluminum Co. of America, Kaiser and Reynolds Aluminum have posted a two-cent price reduction in pig aluminum, effective tomorrow.

Alcoa said it made the price cut to meet competition from a Canadian firm, Aluminium Ltd.

An American Aluminum source in Pittsburgh said the Canadian firm acted after Russia shipped between 30,000 and 40,000 tons of aluminum into Britain.

The source said Russian export of aluminum is possible because the Soviets have converted from aircraft to missile production.

Heinz boosts pay

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The H. J. Heinz Co. will begin paying about 2,000 production workers an additional 11 cents an hour tomorrow.

John Bell, president of Local 325 Canning and Pickle Workers Union, said the increase includes a 7-cent hourly hike under a contract signed last year and a 3 1/2-cent-an-hour cost-of-living increase.

Bulganin Is Named Head Of Red Bank

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev today appointed former Premier Nikolai Bulganin head of the Soviet State Bank and announced most of Bulganin's old Cabinet members and key executives had been retained.

These included Anastas Mikoyan as first deputy premier.

Gen. Ivan Serov was renamed to his old post as chairman of State Security, and Andrei Gromyko reappointed foreign minister.

The supreme Soviet approved these nominations unanimously.

Bulganin's new job is one he held many years ago. When Khrushchev replaced him as premier last Thursday there was much speculation Bulganin would be given the more important position of a deputy premier.

Khrushchev appointed as first deputy premier Mikoyan and F. R. Kozlov, and four additional deputy premiers, Alexei N. Kosygin, Demetri F. Ustinov, and Josef Kuzmin from the old Bulganin Cabinet; and former economic plan member Alexander Zasyadko.

Zasyadko was made minister of the coal industry in the Cabinet of Georgi Malenkov in March, 1953, and was relieved of the job after Malenkov resigned as premier.

Khrushchev announced no changes in the heads of the 19 government ministries.

The appointment of Kozlov as a first deputy premier is new proof that the Leningrad Communist party leader is "on the way up."

Kozlov won a seat in the 15-member Communist party Presidium after last June's shakeup, and subsequently was appointed premier of the Russian Federation.

Khrushchev disposed of the appointment of his new government in a matter of three or four minutes, racing through the list of names without time for applause between them.

Further Word on Shortway Awaited In 27 Counties

HARRISBURG (AP)—Representatives of 27 counties today awaited word from the State Highways Department pinpointing the first projects of the 290-mile Keystone Shortway between Stroudsburg and Sharon.

"We are anxious to know what the Highways Department will come up with," said C. E. Noyes, executive director of the Keystone Shortway Assn.

"Naturally, our representatives from the 27-county area that would be served by the shortway are anxious to see the project get underway soon," Noyes added.

He added that there was no indication to him in advance where the possible initial construction would begin.

Highways Secretary Lewis M. Stevens said over the weekend that announcement of the initial projects would be made today or tomorrow.

Following benediction by Father R. Bruce Ryan, curate of Trinity Memorial church, light refreshments will be served by the Jaycee Auxiliary. Mrs. Howard Anderson will provide music on the Lowrey organ preceding and following the program.

The public is urged to attend to give support and recognition to the exemplary youth of our community.

Some Sections of East Gets More Wet Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was more wet weather for sections of the East and the Far West today but it was fairly mild and pleasant in most of the mid-continent.

Precipitation was general during the night across the Atlantic Coast states from New York state southward through South Carolina, with rain in scattered sections of Georgia and Florida.

Although rain fell in most areas, snow was reported in some mountain areas of New York, the Virginias and Pennsylvania. Heaviest rainfall during the night was at Charleston, S.C., which was drenched with about 1 1/2 inches and making a 24-hour total of 2.23 inches.

COPTER RESCUES MAROONED HIKERS

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, Calif. (AP)—Four Stanford University hikers marooned in the High Sierra by snow were rescued by helicopter today. All were reported in good condition.

The quartet, two girls and two boys, were rushed to a hospital for observation. They had been marooned since last Thursday while on a six-day, 60-mile hike across the mountains.

Chief Ranger Oscar Seidergren announced the rescue.

Milady may deck herself out in her newest finery, junior may roller skate like crazy, and golfers may wade knee-deep in the mud of the course, but in Warren, it's not Spring officially until the first boat goes put-puttin' up 'n' down the river. Though the last few vestiges of snow still cling stubbornly to the banks here and there, the back of Ole Man Winter is broken, and every once in a while, either by accident or design, a warm breeze blows across the river, bringing a promise of warmer weather to come. Outstanding Junior Citizen Will Be Selected Tonight

The Outstanding Junior Citizen of Warren County for 1958 will be announced tonight at 8:00 o'clock at "The Spot," which has been decorated especially for the occasion, and an excellent program has been arranged.

Charles Tranter, executive vice president of Warren Senior Chamber of Commerce, will be toastmaster and introduce Rabbi Herbert I. Berger, who will give the invocation. Ellwood Beckwith, chairman of the investigating division, will introduce nominees; Donna Knapp, 1958 Voice of Democracy winner, will be introduced; Richard Cook, Jaycee president, will present the award.

A special vocal selection "Pledge to Flag," by the Speshsquires, composed of Clyde Baker, Jay Krimmel, Mark Erickson and Phil Jewell, will be heard. Ted Stathakis, immediate past president of Jamestown Junior Chamber of Commerce, will introduce the keynote speaker, Hugh A. Keller, public relations manager of Welch's Grape Company of Westfield, N. Y., whose topic will be "Junior Citizen, What Should the Communist Threat Mean To You?"

Finalists for the award will then be presented by Gordon Drum, Jeff Riedel, general chairman of the project, will introduce the committee and the evening will be climaxed by the announcement of "The Topkid for 1958," outstanding Junior Citizen for 1958.

Following benediction by Father R. Bruce Ryan, curate of Trinity Memorial church, light refreshments will be served by the Jaycee Auxiliary. Mrs. Howard Anderson will provide music on the Lowrey organ preceding and following the program.

The public is urged to attend to give support and recognition to the exemplary youth of our community.

NEW YORK (AP)—A veteran pilot threw his National Airlines plane into a sudden dive yesterday to avert a collision with a twin-engine plane coming directly at him.

The quick action of Capt. Jack Guthrie, 37, was credited with probably saving the lives of 60 persons.

Guthrie told authorities he was approaching Idlewild Airport from Miami with 58 persons aboard when he saw the unidentified plane coming at him.

The veteran of 14 years flying service put the DC6 into a sudden, baggage-jarring steep dive for about 100 feet. Some passengers were thrown out of their seats. Hand luggage fell from the racks. But no panic was reported.

"I saw it just in time to get out of the way," Guthrie said later.

Eleven of the 53 passengers—there were four crewmen in addition to the captain—were treated for shock when the plane landed. None, however, were taken to a hospital.

WAS FINED

MECHANICSBURG, Pa. (AP)—State police yesterday arrested an Ohio motorist who they said was operating his high-powered sports car at speeds up to 120 miles an hour on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near here. David Lee McComb, 29, of Poland, Ohio, was fined $10 and $5 costs before Justice of the Peace H. M. Thompson.

UNILATERAL DECISION IS MADE PUBLIC IN MOSCOW TO KHRUSHCHEV'S CABINET

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today it is halting all hydrogen and atomic weapon tests but warned it will be free to resume them if the West does not follow suit.

A resolution introduced in the Supreme Soviet—parliament—asked the Cabinet to take steps to halt the tests but set no date.

"If other countries possessing hydrogen and atomic weapons continue their tests," the resolution said, "the Soviet government will be free to act in the same manner in the interests of the security of the Soviet Union."

The long-expected announcement of the suspension was made to a joint session of Parliament by Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

There was tremendous applause as he announced this decision of Premier Khrushchev's new Cabinet.

When the unilateral decision becomes effective—once it is approved by the Supreme Soviet—and how long it would remain in effect was not immediately clear.

It was the impression of those who heard Gromyko that the ban would be applied at once.

Gromyko said the Soviet Union hoped that the United States and Britain would join in the suspension of tests.

Gromyko said the Soviet Union considers itself free to end the suspension if the other powers did not join in. He did not indicate how long the Soviet Union would wait.

"We realize that ending of tests does not avert the danger of war," Gromyko told the 1,378 deputies. "When one side tests a series of bombs, the other side tries to catch up."

The foreign minister ridiculed U. S. claims to having produced clean bombs relatively free of radioactive fallout.

"They write about them touchingly but all this is simply to divert people from the main problem—a choice between peace and atomic war," he said.

"They do the same as did former President Truman, trying to justify the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. They are trying to make it seem that atom bombs are for the good of the people. But this conception is alien to the interests of peace and mankind."

"The opponents of banning tests fear that this will bring an end to the production of nuclear weapons. This is the strong point of the test ban. If the tests ban turns out to be cold shower for the hotheads in NATO, then that alone is a good point."

State's First Family Expecting the Stork

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's first family is expecting an addition the latter part of August or early September.

Gov. Leader's wife, Mary Jane, confirmed over the weekend they are expecting their fourth child. They have two boys, 12 and 8, and a girl, age 4.

The Leaders will be the first occupants of the Executive Mansion to become parents during the governor's term of office since the administration of Gov. John W. Geary, who served from 1867 to 1873.

There was no doubt that the sisters talked about Margaret's reunion with the ex-RAF hero she renounced in 1955 because he was divorced.

Townsend dropped out of sight over the weekend. He is expected to return early this week to the Continent.

People of Idaho Swap Views On the Future of Education

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Lights will burn in schoolhouses all over the state tonight as Idahoans attend town meetings to swap views on education.

It's a unique effort by Idaho to get some grass roots opinion on what Gov. Robert E. Smylie calls "the educational questions that press for decision." Some of these questions have been prompted by Soviet and American satellites.

Views expressed at the sessions will be summed up and passed on to a statewide conference in Boise April 21.

Milan Ryder of Weiser, president of Idaho Citizens for Education, said: "We think we have about 98 per cent coverage of the entire state. There will only be a few small school districts that will not hold meetings tonight. Some of these districts will have meetings later."

Specifically, the meetings will discuss three questions: 1. What should be taught in the schools? 2. What can be done locally to improve educational opportunities? 3. What can be done to improve opportunities for promising students after they leave high school and go on to college?

There was no doubt that the sisters talked about Margaret's reunion with the ex-RAF hero she renounced in 1955 because he was divorced.

Dames Drinking More Like Male, Says the Survey

By FRANCIS STILLEY
New York (AP)—Several estimable gentlemen in these parts—all bartenders—report that there has been a marked change recently in women's drinking habits.

More are switching to male-type refreshments at the bar, they say.

More and more, also, are standing toe to toe with the brethren and matching them quaff for quaff.

This pint-sized survey was, naturally, compiled after considerable on-the-scene investigation.

While the findings are not guaranteed to be 100 proof, they were as follows:

The average bartender has a repertoire of about 85 different types of drinks. Of these, some 50 have been ordered with regularity in the past.

Menfolk usually ask for only about five or six of these: Standard and tested old standbys like whisky and soda, water, on-the-rocks, etc.

It used to be that the drinking members of the fairer sex favored the other 44 or 45-such fancy cocktail fripperies as pink ladies, orange blossoms, whisky sours, etc.

But, almost as quickly as a popping champagne cork, the bartenders found women's tastes were changing. They were asking for the same things as men. At the same time they were downing just as much, instead of sipping one or two for hours.

Now comes the stinger. Why? "Beats me," said one purveyor of the potables.

"Maybe advertising," guessed another.

"Probably women just wanting to be more like men," opined a third.

At this point the survey faltered—for a moment.

A nearby woman customer glanced over her drink and spoke up.

"Less calories."

STASSEN AT WASHINGTON
WASHINGTON, Pa., (AP)—Harold E. Stassen, former disarmament advisor to President Eisenhower and a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, sees Khrushchev's rise to power in Russia as lessening the danger of nuclear war.

"Khrushchev is as much or more aware than any ruler in Russia has been of what modern war would mean," Stassen said Saturday night in a non-political speech before the Washington County Bar Assn.

Moon Rockets To Be Available Air Force Promises

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—When moon rockets are available, the Air Force Missile Test Center will be prepared to launch them.

That's the assurance from Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates, test center commander.

Yates said, in answer to a query that the testing range here is "ready to launch anything—with reason—that the missile manufacturers send down to us."

The Pentagon announced that the Air Force had been ordered to undertake three moon survey vehicle projects, and the Army to try one or two.

The Air Force will use this combination: a Thor missile for the first stage, the second stage of the Navy Vanguard rocket for the second stage, and a rocket as yet undeveloped for the third stage.

The Army will use a Jupiter-C, modified somewhat from the four-stage rocket that launched Explorer I, II and III and that will be used to put up two or three more Explorer satellites.

The unmanned vehicles, equipped with radio and recording instruments and, in some cases, a type of television or mechanical ground scanning device, will seek to conduct exploration in the vicinity of the moon but may not land on the moon itself.

The first allocation to the several lunar projects will be eight million dollars.

Unemployment Claim Number Reported Lower

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The number of workers claiming unemployment benefits dropped by 10,500 during the week ended March 15, the Labor Department says.

However, the total jobless claim figure of 3,264,100 for that week was 134,000 higher than in mid-February.

Decreases in claims were reported in 33 states but increases were noted in some, including 17,900 in Michigan, 4,500 in Illinois, 4,200 in Indiana and 3,700 in Texas. The rise in these was blamed mostly on auto plant layoffs.

The Bureau of Employment Security said nearly 59,000 idle workers exhausted their benefit rights in the first three weeks of March. This brought to 351,000 the number who have used up their claims since Jan. 1.

The administration this week proposed a 50 per cent extension of the period in which jobless persons can draw unemployment compensation.

The Bureau said new claims dropped by 6,000 during the week ended March 22. The total was 404,500 for the week.

THIS TELEVISION TOO EDUCATIONAL
Harrisburg (AP)—Police Chief Russell R. Shott today partially blamed television crime pictures for a sudden outbreak of burglaries in the Capital City during the past few days.

Police records show there were 10 burglaries during the brief period and veteran law enforcers say they can't remember when there has been such a bunching of this type crime in Harrisburg.

Shott added that police work in detecting burglars is more difficult today and he gave this reason:

"Thieves know more today. And much of their knowledge is picked up from television crime shows."

He cited one instance where a burglar brought to court testified that he picked up many tricks of his trade by watching a televised detective story series.

Weather Balks Rescue Effort In High Sierra

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, Calif. (AP)—An expected brief weather break today may give air rescue men a quick chance to reach four Stanford University students marooned at 11,600 feet in the High Sierra. One is believed seriously ill with pneumonia.

A storm balked an attempt yesterday to air-drop a paramedic team.

William Pope, 21, son of a San Francisco architect, came down with a heavy cold last Wednesday. He and five Stanford Alpine Club companions then had covered about half of a planned six-day, 60-mile cross-country ski hike from Silver Lake to the Yosemite headquarters via Little Yosemite Valley. The group started out nine days ago.

By last Thursday Pope was so ill and weak that Bart Hooley, 22, Reno, Nev., and Max Allen, University of California student, started hiking out for help. They were near exhaustion when they reached park headquarters Friday night.

Price Standards Of Milk Making Seasonal Decline

The price of standard milk throughout Pennsylvania will make a seasonal decline on April 1 with the exception of Area 13, commonly known as the Williamsport area. Here, as the result of evidence of higher costs introduced by farmers and dealers at a hearing held on March 6, the price of 25c per quart will be held April 1 to August 31, according to an order of the Milk Control Commission issued March 24.

In the Philadelphia and Suburban Philadelphia areas the drop will be 2c per quart on home deliveries and 80c per hundredweight to farmers. In the Allentown-Easton area, the Harrisburg area, the Johnstown-Altoona area, the York area and the Lancaster area, the retail price of milk will drop 1½c and the price to farmers will be reduced ¼c per hundredweight. In Reading the price will drop 1c retail on April 1 and 40c to the farmers and on May 1 a special drought relief payment to farmers will be deducted in the amount of 20c and further benefit the consumer by ¼c per quart.

Effective April 1, the home delivered milk will be sold in Philadelphia and Suburban Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Johnstown-Altoona and York at 24½c. In the Allentown-Easton, Erie, Williamsport and Reading areas the retail price will be 25c. In the Pittsburgh and Scranton-Wilkes-Barre areas, milk will retail at 26c. Homogenized Vitamin D milk is priced one cent higher in most areas.

Prices to farmers will range from $5.75 per hundredweight or 12.37c per quart in the Philadelphia Milkshed to $6.39 or 13.74c per quart in the Pittsburgh area.

But Two Accidental Deaths Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pennsylvania recorded only two accidental deaths over the weekend, the lowest count in many years.

Last week 15 persons were killed in accidents, 11 of them in traffic mishaps. Over the past weekend, two women were killed, one in a fire and the other in an auto crash.

The fire victim was Mrs. Claudia Williams, 57, who was fatally burned when her clothing caught fire from a gas stove at her home in Midland, Beaver County. Mrs. Anna Blanner, 54, died in the crash of two autos in Pittsburgh's Lawrenceville section.

The worst weekend for accidents so far this year was that of Feb. 22-23, when 19 persons were killed, 13 of them in auto wrecks.

Emergency Repair Force of Bell Co. Finishes Huge Task

Working around the clock, battling the hazards of fallen trees, broken poles, dangling wires and waist-deep snowdrifts, a 10,000-man emergency repair force of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania has successfully brought order out of the chaos wrought by the worst Spring storm ever to hit Eastern Pennsylvania.

At the height of the snow, 170,000 telephones were out of service. By Monday, four days after the storm began its devastating work, service had been completely restored except for a few isolated cases.

Bell Telephone Company officials estimated the damage at $4,000,000. This figure, they pointed out, includes both the emergency installations that provided temporary but immediate service, and the work yet to be done to make permanent replacement of the equipment wrecked during the 43-hour storm.

Last Thursday morning, when the weight of the snow began topping trees and felling poles, and service trouble began to mount, telephone company officials put into action their emergency plan.

Crews in the affected areas began a 24-hour-a-day work job, and extra help—linemen and splicers—were brought into the storm belt from Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York.

Convoys of trucks and men started converging on Eastern Pennsylvania. Long lines of green-painted telephone company trucks moved eastward over the Pennsylvania Turnpike, led by an escort of State Police.

Many of the men in Western Pennsylvania had worked a full day before word of the emergency reached them. They put away their tools, made a quick

Rehabilitation Of Prisoners To Be Discussed

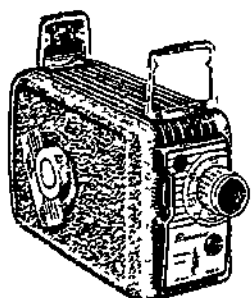

A meeting of interest to Warren citizens, will be held at Grace Methodist church Thursday evening April 17 at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Kermit L. Lawton, Baptist minister and the Rev. Marlin C. Bottiger, Lutheran chaplain, will discuss "Prisoner Rehabilitation."

The Rev. Lawton, representing the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, is in charge of the placing of chaplains in penal institutions, schools, colleges and industries. Mr. Lawton will give a general outline of the work of rehabilitation being done in Pennsylvania through the Pennsylvania Council of Churches in cooperation with the State Department of Welfare.

The Rev. Bottiger, Protestant Chaplain at the Pennsylvania Institute for delinquents at Huntingdon, will tell of his work with the boys and men imprisoned there. Mr. Bottiger's talk will be pinpointed by human interest references from his actual experiences among the prisoners. He will have a display of photographs of life inside a prison and samples of the work done in some of their shops.

This will be an interesting and informative meeting. Rehabilitation of our unfortunate citizens who are confined behind locked doors, is the concern of all citizens who hope for a better world.

The meeting is sponsored by the Commission on Christian Social Concern in the interest of creating a better understanding of the Churches ministry in prisons and correctional institutions.

Working again, 130,000 were restored. This is the way it went, until the job was licked. Now that service is restored—except for the few isolated cases—the men will go forward with the permanent job. New poles will be erected, new wires strung, new cables laid, new equipment installed. It will be weeks before the job is completed. Some of the work was as spectacular as the storm itself. Yet, the men on the job took it in stride.

State Troopers Investigate Four

State troopers investigated a pair of accidents in which three persons were somewhat injured this past weekend.

At 3 a. m. Saturday, troopers said William R. Grove, 35, of 418 Laurel street, fell asleep as he headed south on Route 62 a few miles north of Warren. His car crossed the highway and careened into the guardrails.

Grove had a mouth laceration and Cora Biggs, 22, of RD 2, Warren, a passenger, sustained a lacerated forehead. Car had an estimated $600 damages.

At 7.30 p. m. Friday on Legislative Route 61026 ten miles north of Warren, Ernest Stewart, 38, of 22 Hemlock street, was going to turn left into a driveway at the crest of a grade.

As it turned out, he was crossing in the path of Gerald P. Stanko, 16, of RD 2 Warren, according to troopers. Damages ran an estimated $250 to the Stewart vehicle, $100 to the Stanko machine.

Ruth Pratt, 19, of 1403 Pennsylvania avenue west, a passenger in the Stewart machine was shaken up.

At 10.45 p. m. Saturday Jackie Ruhlman, 16, of 108 Mill street, was going west on Route 6 one mile east of Youngsville. Troopers said she lost control and lost it completely in the berm. Damage was estimated at $400.

At 8 p. m. Saturday, troopers said Kenneth Strang, 17, of Pittsburgh was proceeding north on Route 62 five and one-half miles south of Warren when the car he was operating plunged over an embankment. Damages were estimated at $1,000.

Scientists Making Gases Travel 500,000 Miles Hour

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Navy scientists seeking ways to harness the H-bomb reaction for power production have been able to make gases travel at nearly 500,000 miles an hour.

Dr. Alan C. Kolb of the Naval Research Laboratory said today the research method involves exposing the gases momentarily to electrical power equivalent to that produced by 1,000 big power stations.

He discussed the research in a report prepared for a meeting of the Optical Society of America. Kolb said the techniques were used in producing indicated temperatures "in excess of one million degrees for significant times."

He offered no figures on just how high the Navy believes it has gone on the temperature scale.

But various scientists have said that temperatures of many millions of degrees would be necessary to promote fusion of hydrogen atoms for release of nuclear energy.

The Navy scientist said one way of producing high temperatures is to accelerate a special form of gas to high speeds by means of electromagnetic forces in an apparatus called a "shock tube."

At NRL, gases have been speeded up "to velocities approaching 500,000 miles per hour," Kolb said.

The shock waves produced in the gas, he said, result in high temperatures.

But Kolb also said that in order for the temperatures to be sustained for any significant time, it's necessary to keep the hot gases away from the cold walls of the shock tube.

This is accomplished by surrounding the tube with coils that carry high electrical currents. These currents produce a magnetic field that pushes the gas into the center of the tube.

It said some additional employment losses are expected in a number of important auto and aircraft manufacturing centers.

But the report added that if employers' hiring plans materialize, gains in the construction industry should be an important factor in increased employment as warmer weather makes work possible on many building projects.

Episcopal Diocese Aids Refugee Work

Episcopalians in the Episcopal Diocese of Erie joined with others throughout the country to provide the more than $600,000 spent by the Episcopal Church during 1957 in refugee relief work and in aid of distressed churches around the world, according to the Rev. Robert W. Orvis, chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Episcopal Diocese of Erie.

Over $200,000 was contributed to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief in 1957 and the remaining amount came from the Church's annual budget. Relief funds were used to bring additional food to refugee camps and to provide better medical care for the sick and unsettled refugees in the countries which receive them, including the United States. Nearly 5,000 refugees have been resettled by Episcopalians under the Refugee Relief Act with 2,000 of them arriving in the United States in 1957.

The Presiding Bishop's Committee for World Relief 1958 grants and appropriations include $228,000 to be channeled through World Council of Churches and Church World Service relief projects and $31,500 for direct refugee relief.

Room for a whole posse of junior sheriffs... or 9 big ranch hands!

Six big reasons why FORD is the big wagon favorite

1. Ford wagons outcomfort them all! Ford wagons for 1958 are the only wagons in the low-price field that give you the comfort of contoured, genuine foam-rubber cushioned front seats in all models. Ford wagons give you a -15% softer ride. And Ford's new Magic-Circle steering is 12% easier.

2. Ford wagons set the style! The brilliant new 4-passenger Thunderbird inspired the style of Ford's six new wagons. That means you get styling that will stay in style for years to come.

3. Ford wagons are built to stay built! Of all the wagons in Ford's field, only Ford offers so many braces in the roof (Ford has 6, while others have but 4). And only Ford has 18 rubber body mounts and extra insulation against weather and noise.

4. You can have the Thunderbird's own V-8 60! Enjoy Thunderbird CO in your choice of new V-8's... up to 300-horsepower strong. With Precision Fuel Induction, these engines bring you a new brand of responsive power... particularly in normal driving ranges.

5. You can save up to 15% on gas! Team one of Ford's all-new V-8 engines with Cruise-O-Matic Drive and you can save up to 15% on gas! Or choose Ford's Mileage Maker Six... the most advanced, gas-saving Six in its field!

6. It's the lowest-priced wagon of the low-price 31"! In the low-price three, you can't find a lower-priced 2-door wagon! In fact, all six Ford wagons are priced lower than comparable competitive models.

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices

9-passenger Country Sedan is just one of Ford's six style-setters for 1958. You can pay more but you can't find a better wagon buy.

Industry Urges Satellite That Can Carry Man

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force is studying industry proposals for a soaring satellite to be capable of carrying a man through space and returning him safely to earth.

The long-range project has been named "Dyna-Soar," from the words "dynamic soaring." Lt. Gen. Donald L. Putt, deputy chief of staff for Air Force development, told about it before a House Appropriations subcommittee.

The Air Force did not name the firms submitting proposals for the project.

The Dyna-Soar ship would be launched in the manner of satellites. By varying the power of the original boost from the earth's surface, the velocity could be increased or decreased. Built-in controls would enable the pilot of the vehicle to make from one to several orbits of the earth before completing his mission.

Gen. Putt said that the objective of the Dyna-Soar program was to develop a "military weapon system," capable of operating both as a high-altitude aircraft and as a manned orbital weapon.

SOCIETY

Saturday Recital Enjoyable Event

The social rooms of the YWCA were completely filled Saturday evening with a fine audience which came to share in the recital presented by students from the Warren School of Music, and the occasion proved a most enjoyable musical event.

Several beginner-students appeared for the first time on a school program. Their playing was no disappointment, however, each performing with confidence and ease. Commendable performance was much in evidence among the more advanced pupils appearing later in the program.

It was interesting to note the many nearby towns represented in Saturday's recital, students coming from Marienville, Youngsville, Pittsfield, Clarendon, North Warren, Russell and Akeley.

Mrs. Ethel R. Harriger, faculty member, was in charge of the program, presenting the following:

YHS STUDENTS ASKED TO REGISTER

YOUNGVILLE—Local students interested in registering for the qualification test of the National Merit Scholarship program on April 29 are urged to register promptly in Room 208 with Mr. Turchan. Tests will take place from 9:00 to 12:00 on that date in all participating high schools. Pupils may also contact their principal or Mr. Turchan concerning details of this scholarship program.

CLARENDON EUB CHURCH ACTIVITIES

The usual prayer meeting services will be held Wednesday, with youth meeting at 6:45 and adults at 7:30. Thursday evening, 7:30, there will be a Holy Communion service open to the public and all are welcome. On Good Friday, there will be a service in the Methodist church, 12:00 until 3:00, sponsored by the EUB church but open to the public.

The Clarendon EUB church will have a 6:30 Easter sunrise service. This event is sponsored by the Youth Fellowship and a good turnout will inspire the young people and start the Easter Day on the right note. The regular order of services will follow: Sunday school at 10:00; morning worship at 11:00; Youth Fellowship, 6:30; evening service, 7:30.

SPECIAL EVENTS FOR HOLY WEEK

RUSSELL—Holy Week announcements include a candle-light silent Communion service in the local Methodist church from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. Wednesday; and a like service in Akeley Methodist church at the same hour Thursday. The Good Friday community service will begin at 2:00 p. m.

On Easter Sunday, 6:30 a. m., a sunrise service will be held in the Russell church, sponsored by the Youth Fellowship and followed by breakfast. Other events for Easter Sunday: Russell—Church school at 10:00; worship at 11:00. Akeley—worship service at 9:45; church school at 10:45.

CHERRY GROVE HOMEMAKERS CLUB

Mrs. Geraldine Johnston, of Warren County Agricultural Extension Association office, will be at the all-day meeting of Cherry Grove Homemakers at the home of Mrs. Christensen on Wednesday, assisting members in the next step of their aluminum tray project. Mrs. Hazel Rumberger and Mrs. Flossie Sorensen will serve dessert. Members are reminded the final meeting of their group will be April 16.

DATES CHANGED

Director Andy Yurick announces May 1-2 are the changed dates for the Warren Players' final production of the season, a three-act comedy entitled "Janus".

Brokenstraw Grangers Reminded of Contest

YOUNGVILLE—At the March meeting of Brokenstraw Grange, four candidates were initiated in the first and second degrees: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Landon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peters.

Marian Hollabaugh, home economics chairman, announced all members entering the State Sewing Contest should get their applications in as soon as possible. It was decided to have the local judging of the contest at the Open House meeting April 29.

A special meeting was announced for April 15, when last year's Jaycee Community Ambassador, Dawn Taft, will be guest speaker. Third and fourth degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates April 22.

Lecturer Leo Johnson asked that any member wishing to send magazines to or correspond with some one in a foreign country should contact him for names.

The replica presented to Brokenstraw Grange at the Visitation Meeting held at Columbus Grange Monday night was placed in the Brokenstraw Grange Hall with suitable ceremony by the lecturer. The replica was an engraved maple leaf.

All members are urged to attend the April meetings.

GRACE CHURCH EVENTS

Monday—7:00, Girl and Boy Scout meetings.

Wednesday—7:00, choir rehearsal; 7:30, midweek service, the topic, "Joseph of Arimathea".

Thursday—7:00 a. m., youth Communion breakfast; 7:00 to 9:00 p. m., silent Communion in the sanctuary.

Friday—12:00 to 3:00, three-hour service at First Methodist church.

L. Lawton, of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, will present the Rev. Marlin C. Bottger, chaplain of the Huntingdon Correctional Institution.

EARLY PROGRAMS FOR CHURCH WEEK

Persons in charge of submitting copy for special church activities during the Easter weekend are asked to have the material in the hands of the Times-Mirror Church Editor no later than noon on Wednesday to allow time for preparation for the Friday Church Page.

DR. LEE DE FOREST, VACUUM TUBE INVENTOR PRAISES HEARING AID

Lee de Forest, who made modern radio and television possible through his invention of the vacuum tube fifty years ago, recently lavished high praise on a revolutionary new hearing device called "The Listener." "It is," Dr. de Forest said, "without question the finest hearing aid I have ever worn. Nothing compares with it for the quality of hearing it gives."

Commenting further, Dr. de Forest continued: "The advantage of ear-level hearing and the elimination of irritating clothing noises make 'The Listener' a real pleasure to wear. In fact, it overcomes all the objections I previously had to wearing a hearing aid."

So great has been the interest in this remarkable new electronic hearing achievement, the makers have prepared an illustrated report outlining in detail how it functions. Those interested may obtain a free copy from Paris in the spring always brings new fashions. The latest crop includes these, a suit and a coat dress, both with the unfitted look. Suit (left) has short double-breasted box jacket with long reverses. Skirt has wide pleats. Flaid is a black, white and sepia wool flannel. Coat dress (right) in fine gray-and-black worsted has a half belt at waistline mark. It has long reverses and tapers from fairly wide shoulders to a narrow hemline.—By ROSETTE HARGROVE, NEA Staff Correspondent, Paris.

South had no reason to bid over his partner's one no-trump response but he was one of those players who liked to play every hand and he had a five card spade suit.

Dummy's king of clubs won the first trick and a low spade was led and the ten spot finessed. Now South should have played the king of trumps. He had nothing to gain by leading a second spade from dummy but South did not realize that.

He led the seven of diamonds and finessed dummy's eight East won and seeing possibilities of quite a defense, shot the five of diamonds right back.

South won in dummy and led a second spade. Now East hopped up with the ace and led a heart to his partner.

Getting back to South's two spade bid, it was bad for the simple reason that he had strength in every suit, only five spades and not enough strength to try for game. Therefore, he should have been satisfied with his partner's one no-trump.

The Mature Parent

Child Sees Coercion Behind
Parent's 'Understanding'

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

GAIL had done a poor job of dishwashing. The plates were still sticky with soap, the glasses unwashed. Noting this sloppy work, her mother thought: "I mustn't be angry. I'll just have a little understanding talk with Gail."

So after calling the child's attention to her mistakes, she said, "You know, dear, when you're grown-up and have a home of your own, your husband will expect you to take care of it. There's nothing a man dislikes so much as a slovenly wife. I know it takes time from looking at TV to rinse the dishes, but these are the years when you have to learn to take time to do chores well. Do you understand?"

Gail said, "Yes, Mother. Can I go now?"

SHOCKED and disappointed by this result of her effort to "understand" Gail, her mother said angrily, "Indeed you cannot! You do those dishes properly before you move an inch from this kitchen!"

Then she retreated to the living room to brood resentfully over the child's rejection of her "understanding."

It was rejected because it was coercion masquerading as understanding.

Gail hasn't a home of her own. She hasn't a husband to please by doing chores properly. She's a 12-year-old child intent on 12-year-old affairs. So far as she was concerned, her mother's "understanding" was just yak about a future that had no substance—a round-about way of saying, "Do the dishes again."

Kids Need More 'Thinking
Space' to Meet Space Age

AS a parent, there's one thing I'd like to suggest to the country's educators, who are all hepped up now about cramming more science and mathematics into our children's heads.

It's just this: before we start cramming more into their brains we've got to get rid of a few ideas the schools have already put there.

One is the idea that popularity is the most important thing in the world. High schools that have been electing "class favorites" for years had better start soft-pedaling popularity.

Another is the idea that making the football team is a far greater achievement than making straight A's. And don't think the schools haven't encouraged this notion. Who are given sweaters by the school, written up in the school paper, made heroes of at pep rallies? It's not the superior students who get that kind of applause. It's the kids who make the football team.

STUDIES CROWDED OUT

AND what about all those extracurricular activities that take up so much of the student's time? How is he going to have more time for studying, unless he spends less time as a member of half a dozen school-sponsored organizations?

I'm not saying our high school kids ought to give up everything for studying. I'm just saying they aren't going to take to an increased amount of learning unless something else gives.

If you have a teen-ager in your own family, you know what a hectic life he leads. If anyone is going to try to make him more of a student than he is, some of the extras he is spending his time on are going to have to go.

If we want him to get the main course—which is a good, sound education he really has to work to acquire—then we'll have to quit giving him his dessert first. Which is just what the schools have been doing with their emphasis on social life, popularity, sports, girls' drill teams to perform between halves at football games and all the other frosting.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with a four-tier cake topped with a table centered with a four-tier cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and flanked by white tapers. Mrs. Weed was presented several gifts, games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Helen Stoltz and Mrs. Glendine LaDow.

Guests were Mrs. Leatrice Rowan, Sue Anne, Karen and Dorothy Louise Rowan, Erie; Mrs. Edna Hedrick, Julia Hedrick, Sharon; Mrs. Jeanne Veroline, Sally Veroline, Mrs. Henry Davidson, Kuschka; Mrs. Guy Crooks, Mrs. Audrey Hand, Terry Lee Hand, Mrs. Helen Stoltz, Mrs. Clyde LaDow, Mrs. Lottie Whyte, Mrs. Hula Black, Corydon; Mrs. Gladys Frick, Klonidike.

DOWN ONE CLUB DATES ANNOUNCED

Director R. H. Larsen announces the next regular tournament of Down One Club will be held at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday in the Jamestown American Legion; also that plans are progressing for the club's Open Pair Championship game. Dates will be announced immediately following receipt of sanction from the bridge world's headquarters in New York City, the American Contract Bridge League.

In last week's club session, a four-table Howell movement, winners were George Carlson and R. E. Clark, East Aurora; second, James Breckenridge and Mr. Larsen.

DIAMOND GRANGE

All officers of Diamond Grange are reminded they are to meet at the Grange Hall in Tiona at 7:00 p. m. Tuesday for another drill practice session.

At 8:00 p. m., the regular meeting will feature conferring of the third and fourth degrees. If there are any who plan to enter the Sewing Contest, they should bring registration cards to this meeting and present them to Mrs. Mabel Rapp, home economics chairman. Those who do not have such cards may secure them from Mrs. Rapp, also.

REVIVAL SERIES IN SUGAR GROVE

A good attendance and fine response have prevailed at the revival meetings being held in Sugar Grove Free Methodist church. At the close of last night's meeting, the pastor, the Rev. R. E. Williams, announced the series will continue this week with services nightly at 7:45. The Rev. David Kifer, Pleasantville, is the evangelist and the public is cordially invited.

HOME LEAGUES AT CONFERENCE

Several women representing the Home League of the local Salvation Army Corps were in Sharon recently to attend a leaders' conference. Included in the group were Mrs. Dible, wife of the Corps officers; Mrs. Charles Schaffer, retired officer; Mrs. Iva Matha, Mrs. Agnes Wittenberg, Mrs. Dorothy Laufenberger and Mrs. Pearl Feiro.

Following luncheon in the Salvation Army building, the meeting was in charge of the Divisional Home League secretary Mrs. Lt. Col. Seiler. Many leaders throughout the area took part in the program; Home Leagues from Titusville and Corry put on a skit showing the right and wrong ways of conducting a meeting.

The group was then divided into units of 10 for discussion of days and means of promoting family altars, using the them "The Family for Christ". The conclusion was reached that each home should have a family altar, when the family can best get together, and each individual should take some part in the family worship.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Dr. H. H. Barr, retired Methodist minister, was guest speaker in Calvary Baptist pulpit Sunday in the absence of Pastor Paul Obinger and Church Vice Chairman C. O. Swanson had charge of both worship services.

At the evening service, a full length color film, "I Beheld His Glory", was enjoyed by members and friends. A short color film of the Crucifixion was shown to adults and intermediates during the Sunday school hour as a feature of the Palm Sunday lesson.

Activities in the parish this week include the Women's Missionary Society meeting of all circles, including G.M.G., who will be presenting the program. There will also be election of officers and annual reports. Seminar classes will be held from 7:00 to 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, followed by prayer time and 8:30 choir rehearsal; Prayer for Revival will be at 7:00 p. m. Saturday.

ANNUAL MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUB

The annual luncheon and business meeting of the Woman's Club is scheduled for Monday, April 14, and members are advised their reservation cards for the 1:00 p. m. luncheon should be returned no later than April 9. Officers will be elected during the business session and reports of standing committees will be given.

Well Known Employee of The State Hospital Is Retiring

An employer-employee association of many years and extending over two generations ends today with the retirement of Ernest E. Hoskins as a registered male nurse at Warren State Hospital.

Not only did Mr. Hoskins work at the Hospital for a total of 28 years, but he was born, Sept. 27, 1889, on the

ERNEST HOSKINS

Hospital grounds in the residence known as the Gate House at the eastern end of the main avenue leading to Center building.

His parents, the late Edward and Clara Maud (Hinton) Hoskins, also were employees of the Hospital for many years. His father was an outside attendant in charge of workmen at the old cattle barns, west of Route 62. His mother, who served for years as organist at the Hospital, was one of the first graduates of the Warren Conservatory of Music, and taught music at the Hospital as well as in North Warren and the surrounding community.

Ernest Edward Hoskins attended school in North Warren and was graduated in nursing at Warren State Hospital in 1913 under the late Dr. Harry W. Mitchell, superintendent at that time. He has served in all parts of the North Side and has been at Stone Building medical for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins (nee Inez Eleanor Smith) were married June 21, 1921, and have five daughters: Mrs. Joseph Mastrian, 2 MacPherson street, Warren; Mrs. Richard Donovan, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Raymond Smith, Erie; Mrs. Teresa Rossey and Miss Mary Jane Hoskins, at home at 322 Water Street. Mr. Hoskins has one brother, George Hoskins of Woodstock, Canada, and four sisters: Mrs. Maude Nophsker, Lang Beach, Cal.; Mrs. Ethel Farrell, Laguna Beach, Cal.; Mrs. Margaret Lawson, Sherman, N. Y.; and Mrs. Pearl Johnson, 503 Water street, Warren. The Hoskins have 12 grandchildren. One, brother, Harold, is deceased.

Mr. Hoskins plans to visit his sisters in California this month after which he will "take it easy and enjoy life."

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lundahl, Buchanan street, have arrived home after spending a month in Atlanta, Ga., Orlando and Redding Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hotchkiss, DeWittville, N. Y., celebrated his birthday Saturday by spending the day with Iolyn Hotchkiss, 618 Beech street.

James E. Seitz, 1119 Pennsylvania avenue, west, who underwent surgery last week at the Erie Veterans' Hospital, is reported doing satisfactorily. Friends who would like to write him may do so in care of Ward 3, Room 40.

Mrs. Alfred Hollister, Pennsylvania avenue, east, has arrived home after spending five months with her daughters in Jacksonville, Fla., and Winston Salem, N. C., also with her sister in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Marshall Barnhart, 420 Poplar street, returned by plane to her home Sunday, from Phoenix, Ariz., where she spent two months visiting her son, Edward, and family. Mrs. Barnhart reports temperatures were in the 80's and strawberries were in season at the time of her departure.

Letters to Editor

Warren, Pa. Mar. 29, 1958
Warren Times-Mirror
Warren, Pa.

Your editorial column of Mar. 28th regarding further zoning of Fourth Ave. district, was short and full of undeniable facts and was timely. Simply a case of a few selfish interests inclined to benefit to the detriment and damage to values of many owners of beautiful residences in a neighborhood which many of our prominent residents selected for their permanent homes. This attempt at rezoning is simply another attempt which if successful, would provide another wedge to commercialize sections with the harmful and unnecessary results mentioned.

Sincerely,
H. P. Stone

Forest Co. Man Awarded Ribbon For Forage Crops

Forage crops furnish the cheapest source of digestible nutrients for livestock stated John E. Baylor, Penn State extension agronomist, at a meeting in Tionesta on Thursday evening.

In behalf of the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association, Baylor presented J. R. Alho with a yellow ribbon for having produced last year 94.5 bushels of shelled corn per acre of the Wisconsin 335 variety in his entry in the five-acre Pennsylvania Corn Club.

The highest corn yield for the county was 110.3 bushels of DeKalb 58 produced by Melvin Yeaney of Marienville. His ribbon will be presented at the livestock meeting to be held in Marienville at East Forest High School building on Thursday evening, April 17.

Specialist Baylor also presented Allen Alho with ribbons for having won second place in the mixed hay class and third prize in the first cutting grass class at the Northwestern Pennsylvania Hay Show last fall.

The meeting opened with a series of slides shown by Forest County farmers.

Baylor then used slides and charts to point out improved practices in growing proven varieties of grasses and legumes for maximum production of digestible nutrients.

Questions on production of hay, silage and pasture as applied to their farms were then asked Baylor.

J. R. Alho told how he produced his high yield of corn. Practices making for big yields were then discussed by Baylor and Smith.

On display was a greenhouse flat of grass and legume varieties grown from certified seed. This exhibit is now on display at the Farmers Feed and Supply Store in Tionesta.

STALIN'S SUCCESSOR—For the first time since Josef Stalin died in March, 1953, the supreme authority of Soviet Russia rests in the hands of one man—Nikita S. Khrushchev. The 63-year-old Ukrainian, who already had held the post of Secretary General of the Communist party, became head of both the party and the country when the Supreme Soviet (parliament) elected him premier by acclamation. Khrushchev, who is equally adept at smiling or snarling, replaces Nikolai A. Bulganin, who "resigned" the premiership Stalin had held the two top posts from 1941 until his death.

Latest Anastasia Called Pretender

Wiesbaden, Germany (AP)—An elderly teacher who tutored the children of Russia's last czar testified today that a Black Forest woman who claims to be the czar's daughter, Anastasia, is only a pretender.

Prof. Pierre Gilard of Lausanne University was the key witness for the House of Hesse as the long disputed case of Anastasia resumed in a German civil court.

Mrs. Anna Anderson, 57 has sought since the early 1920s to prove that she is Anastasia and is entitled to the czarist properties in Germany that were turned over to the House of Hesse in 1933. The House of Hesse, related to the czarist family, contends the woman who lives in the Black Forest as Mrs. Anderson is actually a former Polish farm worker.

A West Berlin court ruled in 1936 that Mrs. Anderson's claim is groundless.

Czar Nicholas II, Express Alexandria, their son and four daughters—including Anastasia—long have been recorded as executed by the Bolsheviks in 1918.

Gilard was asked for details of czarist family life that might be unknown to all except someone intimately acquainted with the household. To many questions the 78-year-old Swiss professor simply answered: "I can't remember."

But he said he recalled that Anastasia used an alcohol heating device instead of a samovar to prepare her tea. Mrs. Anderson contends she remembers that the family used a samovar.

Gerarde Wins Over Salle In Return Bout at Erie

Within 15 seconds of the first round, Warren's star mitt artist, Rocky Gerarde, put opponent Vic Salle through the ropes, letting him up to pound him around the ring and win the nod of the judges in Saturday's night's bout in Cannon Auditorium in Erie. Salle had been screaming for a return bout with Gerarde since their Jan. 23 match in Pierpont, Ohio, Gerarde winning there, also.

Veteran Salle's manager, Godfrey Holman, related that Vic wasn't in good shape in Ohio, and although Gerarde won there, the story would be different in Erie, promising Gerarde to be knocked out.

Promoter Don Elbaum of Erie, arranged the return match, and announced to Times-Mirror, that a card May 3, or before, is scheduled, and Gerarde is definitely wanted for it.

Salle gave Gerarde difficulty in landing his damaging left hook, or any special right-left combinations he and manager Joe Fazio had worked out to open Salle up.

After Salle picked himself up in the first round from the lower rope, Gerarde knocked him around inside of the ring, landing a nice solid left to the jaw. The Ashtabula boxer was kept on his toes during the opening round, and found himself banging the ropes several times.

Opening round two with a right cross to Salle's jaw, Gerarde again put the Ohio battler on the ropes, only to let him up and knock him around outside the lower strand again. A toe-to-toe battle opened in the center of the ring for a few seconds with both boys landing what ever came off the gloves. Coming out of the first two-sided battle of the evening, Rocky stumbled but caught himself, putting Salle back to the ropes with a series of left-right combinations. The battle at this point became so involved, neither fighter heard the bell and kept the gloves landing—much to the pleasure of the fans. Gerarde fought round two without a mouth piece, as he dropped it early in the round.

Round three was much slower but Gerarde dominated blows here, also. Scoring a right to the cocky-stanced Salle's face.

Gerarde knocked him in a corner. After walking the loser to his corner, a thunderous applause from the fans was awarded Rocky as he returned to his corner for the decision. When leaving the ring, hands went up in the air with cries of appreciation to the local battler.

Meadville's Dave Brown drew a bye as his opponent, Ken Brown, was in a car accident before the fight along with another Youngstown boxer, "Pop-eye" Sandella. Cleveland Golden Gloves winner of the 112-pound title by defeating a fighter with 30 wins out of 32 fights, also drew a bye when opponent David Jones was unable to fight due to the auto accident. Sandella has won 12 out of 13 fights—seven by knockouts.

Outcome of the other six bouts were as follows:

Harry Nobbs, Warren, Ohio, over Dave Bortnik, Conneautville, Pa., 157.
Kenny Wald, Erie, over John Stevard, Erie, 135.
Don Wild, Ashtabula, over Al Barnett, Erie.
Johnny Bizzaro, Erie, over Bob Siler, Ashtabula.
Jim Berdis, Erie, over Billy Williams, Painesville, 155.
Byes—Bobby Sandella, Ashtabula, 112; Dave Brown, Meadville, 190.

From Gerarde's Corner

By Larry Dick

Bad luck was on Promoter Don Elbaum's coat tails Saturday night, as fighters were rejected by the examining doctor for minor congestions. Our own combination of all-time greats, Rocky Gerarde, just slipped pass the physical, as he had a slight chest congestion. Elbaum's bad luck started when fighters en route from Youngstown, Ohio, were involved in a car accident. After the 7-bout card had finished, it was one of the best in this area, through untiring efforts of Don Elbaum.

Among the many compliments extended Warren fans on their pride and joy, included this one from Elbaum: "He's the hottest prospect I've seen in a long time." Ken Zigler, Times-News photographer, related, "He was good—you should bring more like that here!" Ken did our shooting of photos.

Among the press table crew was jumping Jack Polancy, sports writer for Erie Times-News. A great guy with a mean typewriter.

Former Bradford resident and boxer, Father Giddis, managed Jim Berdis in Saturday's battle. Father Giddis has had boxers for years and is now with Martin Recreation Center.

Manager Lou Severo and Dave Brown sure have had tough luck in the past two months. At Pittsburgh's Golden Gloves in February, Lou's coat, glasses, wallet and car keys were stolen. Dave was robbed of his bout in the Gloves, and everybody, but the judges, that is, thought so. Dave related that his opponent walked over to him after the bout and told him he had won, and even tried to persuade the judges of the same. Fans went wild with anger with the decision. Then Saturday, Dave drew a bye as his opponent was in the accident also. He is looking to return to Philadelphia soon to work. He has been working with Harold Johnson there for several months. Johnson is getting in shape for the light-heavyweight championship bout with Archie Moore. Local fans may look for an appearance here of Brown shortly.

Johnny Bizzaro sure has a nice fan club—all girls! The best part of it is, they do road work with him in the mornings and work out with him in the gym. Boxing might not be a bad profession after all, hey Johnny?

Too bad Bobby "Popeye" Sandella wasn't able to show his stuff in Erie. (Drew a bye after the accident). Bobby's a tough kid to beat and has proved it numerous times. Winning Cleveland Golden Gloves this year, he would have made his first appearance in Erie.

Seems a shame that when a guy gets set so surely on something that it can't come true. Take for instance Salle's manager, Godfrey Holman. He reported last week that "... I promise you he (Salle) will knock out Gerarde..." Shall we try again?

While in this vicinity of Gerarde and Salle, it might be interesting to note that Salle stood 6 ft. 3 in. to Rocky's 6 ft. 11 in. arm reach as set over Rocky, was a few pounds heavier—and a veteran in the ring—compared to Rocky's eight fights.

Big surprise might be shaping up for boxing fans in the area within two months... here's hoping!

A dispatch from Cincinnati reports former world heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles will hit the comeback trail "within 3 or 4 weeks," his new trainer, Herschel Joiner, said Saturday. Joiner said Tom Tannas of Pittsburgh, will manage Charles, who is on leave of absence from his job as juvenile court counsel at Cincinnati. Tannas "has been negotiating for an opponent," Joiner said.

Our good friend in the Gem City, Don Elbaum, has the same to say as most professional boxers in the area have been saying since the Robinson-Basilio battle last Tuesday—both are finished as far as boxing goes, due to their ages. Don reports: "All I can say is that it was a great fight. Robinson and Basilio are at the end of the trail. Age has caught up with the all time great Robinson—how he pulled the fight out of the bag the way he did I will never know."

HOT STOVE RBIS

First of the personalities in the Warren Hot Stove League whom we would like to introduce to you is our new President, Robert S. Johnson, prominent real estate broker. Bob and his family, including one son, a "Hot Stover", and one daughter reside at 318 Crescent Park. A native of Warren, he is a former W. H. S. athlete, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and an Army veteran. Currently Bob is a member of Grace Methodist church and a Gra-Y leader and like all Hot Stove League leaders, is a sports enthusiast. In our league for the past few years, our President has been ward chairman, corresponding secretary, and an active member of several committees.

As President this year, Bob will be in charge of all league meetings and a member of all committees, a sizeable undertaking, for in a volunteer organization such as ours, there are many divergent opinions and plans which must be coordinated. However, he willingly gives of his time and talents for the boys of Warren.

This is a brief sketch of our league President, who looks forward to another banner season in the Warren Hot Stove League.

Boys! Keep the 'April 14-15 registration dates in mind.

TRAINING CAMP NOTES

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
The injury jinx still is dogging the Cleveland Indians. It has cut down veteran Vic Wertz, the one solid man in Manager Bobby Bragan's infield.

The 33-year-old first baseman, who belted polio for a loop in 1935 and was voted the AP's Comeback of the Year award in '56, suffered a fractured ankle yesterday. He will be lost for at least nine weeks.

The injury came as Wertz slid into second base in the third inning of a 12-10 exhibition defeat by the San Francisco Giants at Tucson, Ariz. His spikes caught in the dirt.

Wertz was figured to join outfielders Minnie Minoos and Rocky Colavito for the Tribe's RBI and power hope. Vic led the club with 28 homers last season and had 105 RBIs, second in the league.

With Wertz out, the Indians are expected to recall Joe Altobelli, sent back to the minors just last week, while getting as many games as they can from Mickey Vernon, the 39-year-old first baseman collected from the Boston Red Sox for the waiver price last January.

Altobelli batted a mere .207 in 83 games with the Indians last year. Vernon played in 102 games with the Red Sox, batting .241.

Pitcher Cal McLish was tagged but good as the Giants came from behind with four runs in the ninth yesterday. Rookie Orlando Cepeda's second home run of the game, with two on, made it 11-10 and Bobby Thomson then hit the Giants' fifth home run of the day. Rookie Willie Kirkland, Ray Jablonski and Cepeda connected for consecutive home runs off starter Dick Brodowski for a short-lived 7-3 lead in the fifth. Curt Barclay was the winner.

Only one other exhibition game was played. The Chicago Cubs defeated Baltimore 2-1 in 12 innings on Ken Lehman's bases-loaded walk to Dale Long. Rookie Dolan Nichols, pitching perfect ball in his 2-2-3 innings, was the winner. Long also drove in the Cub run, smacking a first-inning double off Connie Johnson.

"We used a press to upset them and even when Altoona got by the press their boys couldn't get a good shot through our zone," Juenger said.

From start to finish the outcome was never in doubt. Haverford jumped off to a 10-0 lead in the first three minutes of play and Altoona never could catch up. Before the period ended Haverford held a 20-9 margin.

Ed Macilloyle, a 5-10 sharpshooter, paced the winners with 27 points, dumping in 12 field goals to tie a championship playoff record set by Julius McCoy of Farrell in 1954. Bob Hansard had 11 points to top Altoona's scorers.

Haverford ended the season with a 25-3 mark and Altoona finished with 22-5.

Juenger summed up the win saying, "It was our best game and our best team job. Altoona had a good team. They had to get to the finals. But they just couldn't get started or it would have been rough."

Hershey Bears Show No Sign Of Cooling Off

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Anyone around the American Hockey League who thought that the Hershey Bears might cool off in the Calder Cup playoffs after copping first place during the regular season is a mile disappointed today.

The Bears made it three in a row over the Providence Reds 7-6 last night in the best-of-five semifinal series, and hold a commanding 3-0 lead. The Cleveland Barons moved to a 2-1 advantage over the Springfield Indians with a 5-1 victory.

Ed Stankiewicz' goal only three seconds before the final buzzer broke a 6-6 tie for the Bears' triumph. Hershey almost blew it in the last period as the Reds overcame a 5-2 deficit, four goals in seven minutes to go ahead 6-5.

Celtics Locked In Tie With the St. Louis Hawks

BOSTON (AP)—It looks like last year all over again in the National Basketball Assn. playoff finals as defending champion Boston and St. Louis move westward locked in a 1-1 tie.

The Celtics outclassed the Hawks 136-112 Sunday and deadlocked the best-of-seven final series. Boston had done the same thing 12 months ago in the second contest with a 20-point, 119-99 decision.

In the Saturday opener before a nationwide television audience, St. Louis eked out a 104-102 decision. A year ago the margin was the same for the Hawks, 125-123, in overtime.

Boston finally won last year's finals in the seventh and last game, going two hectic overtime periods for the 125-123 victory.

MR. WHAT WINS STEEPLECHASE

AIN'TREE, England, (AP)
Mr. What won the 112th running of the Grand National steeplechase Saturday. Tiberetta was second and Green Drill third in the field of 31 starters.

The day was wet, and rain made the 4 1/2-half-mile course muddy, cutting heavily into the crowd for the world's toughest steeplechase.

Mr. What was an 18-1 shot in the race over 30 obstacles.

The favorite, Wyndburgh, finished fourth, and Goosander was fifth.

The royal family didn't attend this year because of criticism from humane societies of the race in which horses often are hurt so badly they must be destroyed.

Tiberetta and Green Drill both were 28-1 in the betting.

"Fitness for Youth" Show Planned at Beatty April 17

Gymnast-wrestling coach Hal Miller, happily announced today that a physical education exhibition entitled "Fitness For Youth" is scheduled to be presented in Beatty gym April 17. Such a program has been absent from the Warren scene over 15 years. "We are trying to bring back more gymnastics that Warren High was once known for," Hal reported.

Events in the show are excerpts of the High School curriculum of physical education. Directors stress the fact that nothing is added in the exhibition for show purposes. "Everything is authenticated in our curriculum of physical education," Hal added.

Approximately 200 students will be participating in the music-background program. Harry Summers, WHS orchestra director, and Carroll Fowler's A Cappella choir will furnish music.

Events exhibited in the show include girls marching, tumbling and pyramid building; boys tumbling; dumbbell and wand drills, free exercise, modern dance, square dance, boys and girls ladder pyramids, trampoline, horizontal bar, parallel bar, elephant combined with spring board, and fly rings. Tumblers will do rolls, head and hand springs, cartwheels, roundoffs, kipups, and running somersaults. It might be stated that the skills that these students are displaying are skills being done in regular gym classes.

Participants in the show have not been hand picked, and any student in Warren High is eligible for this exhibition. Ability and coordination are not the prerequisites, according to directors.

A limited number of tickets are being placed on sale at a quarter each. Interested fans are urged to buy now to insure a seat. Selling tickets are participating students, Miss Phyllis Putnam, Hal Miller, and the office of Warren High.

Carol Heiss and Dave Jenkins Retain Crowns

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Carol Heiss and Dave Jenkins fixed an even tighter hold on their world figure skating supremacy today, but at least one expert said they are no cinch to win the 1960 Olympics.

Miss Heiss, bubbly 18-year-old college coed from Ozone Park, N.Y., repeated as women's national champion Saturday night by a miles-ahead margin over four rivals. Jenkins retained his national crown Friday night.

The two champions may be unbeatable for the next year or so, at least, said skating coach Ed Schildan.

Little Guys Fight For Big Money At Los Angeles

The Associated Press

The little guys fight for big money tomorrow night when Nigeria's Hogan (Kid) Bassey defends his world featherweight title against Mexico's colorful Ricardo (Pajarito) Moreno at Los Angeles.

The 15-rounder won't be telecast.

For this first defense of the 126-pound division crown, the 25-year-old African has been guaranteed $70,000 plus expenses. Moreno, a 21-year-old, will receive $38,000 plus expenses. Few featherweights aside from Willie Pep and Sandy Saddler ever have collected such fat purses.

Bassey, a fine boxer-puncher, probably will be about a 2-1 favorite. He won the crown vacated by Saddler when he stopped France's Cherif Hamia in the 10th round in Paris June 24, 1957.

Saddler, now retired, will have a rooting interest in tonight's television 10-rounder at New York's St. Nicholas Arena. The ex-featherweight champ trains Rudy Sawyer of New York, who meets Jimmy Peters of Washington.

Du Mont will telecast at 10 p.m. EST.

There should be plenty of action at Louisville Wednesday night in the television scrap between middleweight contender Rory Calhoun, White Plains, N.Y., and light heavyweight ranker Yolande Pompey of Trinidad. Both can punch.

A couple of veteran campaigners, former welterweight champion Kid Gavilan of Cuba and middleweight Ralph (Tiger) Jones, Yonkers, N.Y., meet for the third time at Philadelphia's Arena Friday night.

CHANGED MAN

Sportsmen Urge Inquiry of Macing in Licensing Setup

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs has asked the Justice Department to investigate reports some county political leaders are forcing hunting and fishing license agents to make campaign contributions.

The federation closed its annual spring meeting over the weekend by adopting a resolution calling for a "thorough investigation of the practice and make prosecution when they find evidence of macing (forced contributions) in any county of the commonwealth."

Charles H. Nehf, Allentown, secretary of the PFSC, said the reports indicated "this is a very serious problem, especially at this time before an important primary election."

Nehf said the agents, who are not state employees, are forced to make campaign contributions to political parties under threat of losing their charter to issue hunting and fishing permits.

The agents generally are businessmen who operate sporting goods or hardware stores where sportsmen ordinarily make purchases.

Nehf said he planned to contact the attorney general as soon as possible to explain where the reports have originated. He said one member of the federation has documented several cases of intimidation of licensing agents.

In other action the federation set Sept. 19-20 for its annual fall meeting.

William Voigt Jr., executive director of the State Fish Commission, urged the PFSC to oppose any political and private pressure put on the commission for special interest programs.

M. J. Golden, executive director of the game commission, said the hard winter caused the loss of some deer, but that "we don't have to be too concerned about the matter." He explained that the losses would not wreck the herd.

TIE THIS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—

Avowedly a merry widow at a jaunty 77, Mrs. Ala Jane Hartman is back home today after a South Pacific cruise on which she won headlines and marriage proposals, mainly because of a rare fancy in clothes.

When Mrs. Hartman, all twinkles and vivacity and Georgia drawl, arrived in New York yesterday on the Norwegian American Line's Bergensfjord, she was sporting a colorful ensemble made from the neckties which belonged to two of her three late husbands. She wore the same outfit at ports of call on the 11-week cruise.

CORRY MAN NAMED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—D. Armour Hillstrom of Corry was named to the board of directors of the National Office Furniture Assn. on Saturday.

BASKETBALL

DENVER—Peoria won the National AAU tournament, defeating Denver 74-71 in four overtimes.

DEER

Whitetail deer around Boulder Junction, Wis., had a relatively easy winter, fattened up early for next fall's hunting season. Less snow than usual in the northern sections allowed the animals to range widely and browse contentedly among long-needed pine in the Jack Pine zone.

General Gavin Retiring From the Service Today

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP)—Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin, 51, an ex-paratrooper and critic of what he charged were holdbacks in the Army's missile program, will retire from the service at formal ceremonies today.

The scheduled presentation of the Distinguished Service Medal to Gen. Gavin by Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer, Army vice chief of staff, was moved indoors.

Gavin, then chief of Army research and development, testified before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee that he thought the Soviet Union in missiles development. He charged that the Army's missile program had deliberately been held back.

He then announced his retirement, declaring he believed he could "do the Army more good from without than within."

Gavin was a colonel and was the first man to jump when the 82nd entered World War II combat over Sicily. He also made the division's other three combat jumps, at Salerno, Normandy and Nijmegen, Holland.

CORYDON

CORYDON — At a recent meeting of Corydon Grange, it was announced Columbus Grangers will pay local members a Visitation Meeting April 14. Named to serve on the refreshments committee were Mrs. Margaret Ruth, Mrs. Cynthia Prue and Mrs. Lottie Whyte.

Mr. and Mrs. George Akers, well known local couple, observed their 64th wedding anniversary March 27, welcoming many friends and receiving congratulations in person and by mail. Their son, Ralph, of Warren, was present for a family dinner. Other visitors at the Akers home have been Mrs. L. R. Stryker, Mayme Marsh, Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley, Akaley.

On April 4, a Holy Week meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the Methodist church.

A pleasant gathering of Foreign Missionary Workers of the church of the Nazarene was held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Ruth. A twelve dinner was followed by a work-meeting in charge of the president, Mrs. Gertha Crooks.

A dinner-meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid Society was held with Mrs. G. A. Prue. Mrs. Glendine LeDow presided at the business meeting and the remainder of the time was spent socially. Present were Mrs. George Sauters, Mrs. Nelson Crooks, Mrs. Audrey Duntley, Mrs. A. M. Kraft, Mrs. Lottie

WARNS ON SPACE — Col. John P. Stapp, Air Force medic and famous space-flight pioneer, warns that the U.S. must launch a man into space within the next five years to beat the Russians. He urges the U.S. as quickly as possible, to send up a satellite containing a chimpanzee and try to return the animal safely to earth. That done, he says, it would be safe to send a man into space.

Whyte, Mrs. Viola Gardner, Mrs. Hazel Benton, Mrs. Mabel Russ, Mrs. Lucille Wheeler, Mrs. Freeman Keller, Mrs. Cynthia Prue. Next gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. Bennett Putnam at Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Van Sickle and son have returned to Florida after visiting his parents, the E. L. Van Sickle.

CORNELL'S CAT

OIL CITY, Pa. (AP) — Cornell University will receive a sizeable bequest following the recent death of a house cat which had been willed an estimated $755,000 by an Oil City woman. An appraisal of the estate of Nettie Johnson Huey is now being made. When the woman died in 1955 she left her estate to a "cat or cats" owned by her at the time of her death. When the "cat or cats" died, she stipulated, the estate was to be appraised and the money donated to Cornell University.
